

TERiX DEDICATES WALL OF FAME
First Round of Inductees Includes Elite Members of Channel Community

SUNNYVALE, CA (April 7, 2009) – In an effort to honor members of the channel community who have helped TERiX become one of the fastest growing international third-party providers in the service industry, TERiX has inducted 65 channel partners into its new Wall of Fame.

The honor is accompanied by plaques recognizing inductees in the Sunnyvale headquarters, but also allows Wall of Fame members to receive special offers and advanced opportunity to see into the TERiX product blueprint and strategic direction.

“Our channel community deserves recognition and this group deserves special thanks,” said CEO and President Bernd Appleby. “Together, we’ve joined forces to deliver a unique value proposition to hundreds of end users while rewarding the channel partners with better account control and alternate sources of revenue.”

“Many of these partners were there at the beginning,” added Executive Vice President Jim Olding. “They know our focus on better service, better value and understand the sophisticated business model we’ve established. They also understand our growth and our vision.”

“No company is prouder of its partners,” added Appleby.

Additional companies will be honored at the upcoming unveiling of the wall at headquarters in Sunnyvale.
